

While driving truck and traveling on vacations, it is helpful to know traffic and weather conditions before actually coming in range of local broadcast stations. Satellite radio provides that information. The driver also doesn't have to be distracted from driving trying to find a local station in unfamiliar places. Please don't restrict that kind of content on satellite radio.